* UF Board of Trustees
Prominently placed as the entrance to the University of Florida, our corner of The Gator Nation is where we develop dedicated business leaders. From here, we influence the world, pushing to stay on the forefront of research and education. But this isn’t about a classroom. The Warrington College of Business is designed to help students change the way they view obstacles in the real world and preparing them to raise the bar.

This is where we produce difference makers that shape businesses, non-profits, government, and eventually the world. It’s what built Warrington into one of the most respected business schools in the country.

The Fisher School of Accounting provides a rich environment for the study of accounting. Students in the program experience a curriculum dedicated to growth in a complex and important field.

Accounting at UF traces its roots back to 1923 when the first accounting course was offered. From there the demand for more course offerings quickly grew and in 1947 the department of accounting was officially formed with 255 students. With continued growth, the department formed into an experimental School in 1977, and the faculty Senate voted to make the School permanent in 1983. It was ultimately renamed the Fisher School of Accounting in 1985 to honor alumnus Fredrick Fisher. Today, Gerson Hall houses the Fisher School of Accounting administrative offices, its faculty, and students. Gerson Hall is a 36,000 square foot, $9.3 million structure.

The School’s faculty have earned Ph.D. degrees from the nation’s leading universities and are committed to excellence in teaching, research, and service. The faculty produce important scholarly work, serve as editors and referees for major accounting journals, and participate in service to professional and government organizations at the international, national, and state levels.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN ACCOUNTING

DIRECTOR: Dr. Gary McGill

As one of the nation’s few freestanding accounting schools, students in the program experience a curriculum dedicated to growth in an intricate field. The School is committed to scholarly research, teaching, and service to advance knowledge and prepare future leaders for business, professional, and academic careers.

QUICK FACTS
- U.S. News & World Report ranked Fisher’s undergraduate program No. 6 among U.S. publics.
- Over the last five years, 12 current Fisher faculty members published 63 articles in peer-reviewed journals.
- The School’s first-time candidates earned an overall passing rate of 80% for all parts of the CPA exam attempted in 2017.

HONORS:  * = Cum Laude   = Magna Cum Laude   = Summa Cum Laude

Degrees conferred are contingent upon students meeting all academic and financial obligations to the University of Florida. Names appearing in print are of those students who applied to graduate prior to February 21, 2020 and provided consent to be included in the program.

Undergraduate Honors Designation: Cum Laude, Magna Cum Laude and Summa Cum Laude are tentative and subject to final grades.
Students come face-to-face with ethical issues in business and learn how industry leaders handle similar challenges. The Center aims to increase student awareness of the importance of ethics in their personal and professional lives.

Entrepreneurship & Innovation Center
Director: Jamie Kraft
The Center was created to teach, coach and inspire students to be entrepreneurial in their lives. It provides students the tools and experiences necessary to creatively pursue new opportunities and innovations in the start-up, social, and corporate venture arenas.

Human Resource Research Center
Director: Dr. Mo Wang
The purpose of the Center is to contribute to the science and the profession of human resource management. It supports educational programs and research that affect human performance in work settings in ways that have practical implications for management.

International Accounting & Auditing Center
Director: Dr. Robert Knechel
The mission of the Center is to advance the overall academic and educational goals of the Fisher School of Accounting on an international level. The Center undertakes activities to bring a broader international focus to the programs and research efforts of the School.

International Business Center
Director: Dr. John Kraft
The Center aims to bring business executives with global responsibilities to campus, promote participation by Hough students in international case competitions, develop outreach activities with the local business community and develop opportunities for UF faculty, staff and students to conduct research in other countries.

Management Communication Center
Director: Dr. Fiona Barnes
The Center provides expertise in business and management communication, disseminates communication research, provides on- and off-campus training in optimal communication strategies and information sharing, and equips business students with communication skills necessary for success in an information economy.

Public Utility Research Center
Director: Dr. Mark Jamison
The Center was founded in 1972 and is an internationally recognized academic center dedicated to research and to providing training in utility regulation and strategy, as well as the development of leadership in infrastructure policy.

Kelley A. Bergstrom Real Estate Center
Director: Timothy Becker
For more than 30 years, the Center has been cultivating the exchange of education and information among real estate researchers, academics, students and industry leaders. The Center was named after Kelley A. Bergstrom, who in 2006 created an endowment to support the Center for years to come.

David F. Miller Retail Center
Director: Betsy Goodman
The Center strives to develop tomorrow’s leaders by stimulating interest in retail careers, preparing students for entry-level management, providing continuing education opportunities, facilitating communications between retailers and academics, and researching retail issues.

Supply Chain Management Center
Director: Dr. Asoo Vakharia
The Center aims to bring together executives, UF faculty and students in order to pursue excellence in Supply Chain Management practice, education and research.

Teaching & Learning Center
Director: Dr. Megan Leroy
The Center is dedicated to the support and enhancement of quality in the college’s courses and degree programs. Through the Center, the College also provides support to faculty in developing and maintaining a robust assessment plan to ensure continuous student learning.

UF ALMA MATER

Florida, our Alma Mater, thy glorious name we praise.
All thy loyal sons and daughters,
a joyous song shall raise.
Where palm and pine are blowing,
where southern seas are flowing,
Shine forth thy noble gothic walls,
thy lovely vine clad halls.
Neath the orange and blue victorious,
our love shall never fail.
There's no other name so glorious,
all hail, Florida, hail!
